Agnes Winston

Faculty and students alike were both shocked and saddened by the passing away of Miss Agnes Winston on Friday morning, September 8, at Menomonie Memorial Hospital.

Miss Winston had been a member of The Stout Institute clerical staff for twenty-three years, having served in both the Registrar's office and in the President's office. At the time of her death Miss Winston was an assistant presidential secretary.

In addition to being a very loyal and conscientious worker Miss Winston also possessed a very pleasing personality, causing her to be cherished by all with whom she came in contact. No task seemed to be too difficult, and she met each new challenge with a smile.

As a result of the services and favors which she contributed to the staff and students, Miss Agnes Winston will continue to live throughout the coming years in the hearts and memories of the faculty and students of The Stout Institute.

Daniel Green

Daniel Green, Associate Professor of Industrial Education, died suddenly on June 30 at the Eau Claire hospital. He had served on the teaching staff of Stout since 1924. At the close of his career Mr. Green taught Machine Drawing and General Drawing.

Before coming to Stout Mr. Green had held positions as instructor of industrial arts in Iowa, Kentucky, and Michigan; he was also head of industrial education at the Macomb Teachers college in Illinois. After World War I broke out he obtained a position as head superintendent at the Midland Chemical Company in Chicago.

The major portion of Professor Green's life was spent in the field of education. His attitude toward this choice may be summed up best in his own words: "If I had my life to live over, my decision as to a career would be the same. Whatever I have been able to give to teaching has been repaid many times over by the pleasant associations which have been mine as a teacher and in knowing that I have had a part in preparing successful students."

Arthur G. Brown

Arthur G. Brown, Associate Professor of Education at The Stout Institute, died suddenly at his home on October 7, 1950.

Mr. Brown came to Stout in 1920 after being head of the department of manual arts at State Normal School, Bottineau, North Dakota. He had previously taught industrial arts and coached athletics at Le Sueur, Minnesota.

Professor Brown was well known as an author, having published, in conjunction with Professor Frank Tustison, Job Sheets in Practical Woodworking and Instructional Units in Hand Wood Work. With R. A. McGee he wrote Instructional Units in Woodfinishing.

While at The Stout Institute Mr. Brown was a member of the faculty committee on admissions and credits. His interest in student activities was demonstrated by his acting as sponsor for the Kappa Phi Sigma social fraternity and as a member of the faculty committee of Epsilon Pi Tau.

Mr. Brown also had the distinction of having been elected to Phi Delta Kappa.

John Clayton Rutherford

When the doors of The Stout Institute opened for the fall term, when the band and the Symphonic Singers assembled, a well-liked, familiar face was missing. John Clayton Rutherford, who was to have been a senior, died during the summer at a veteran's hospital in Minneapolis after an illness of six weeks.

Jack, as he was known to most of us, was born at Tigerton, Wisconsin, on January 23, 1928. He had lived at White Lake, St. Croix Falls, Phillips, and Tomahawk. In June 1945 Jack joined the Navy; he was honorably discharged on June 2, 1946. After his discharge he joined the ROTC.

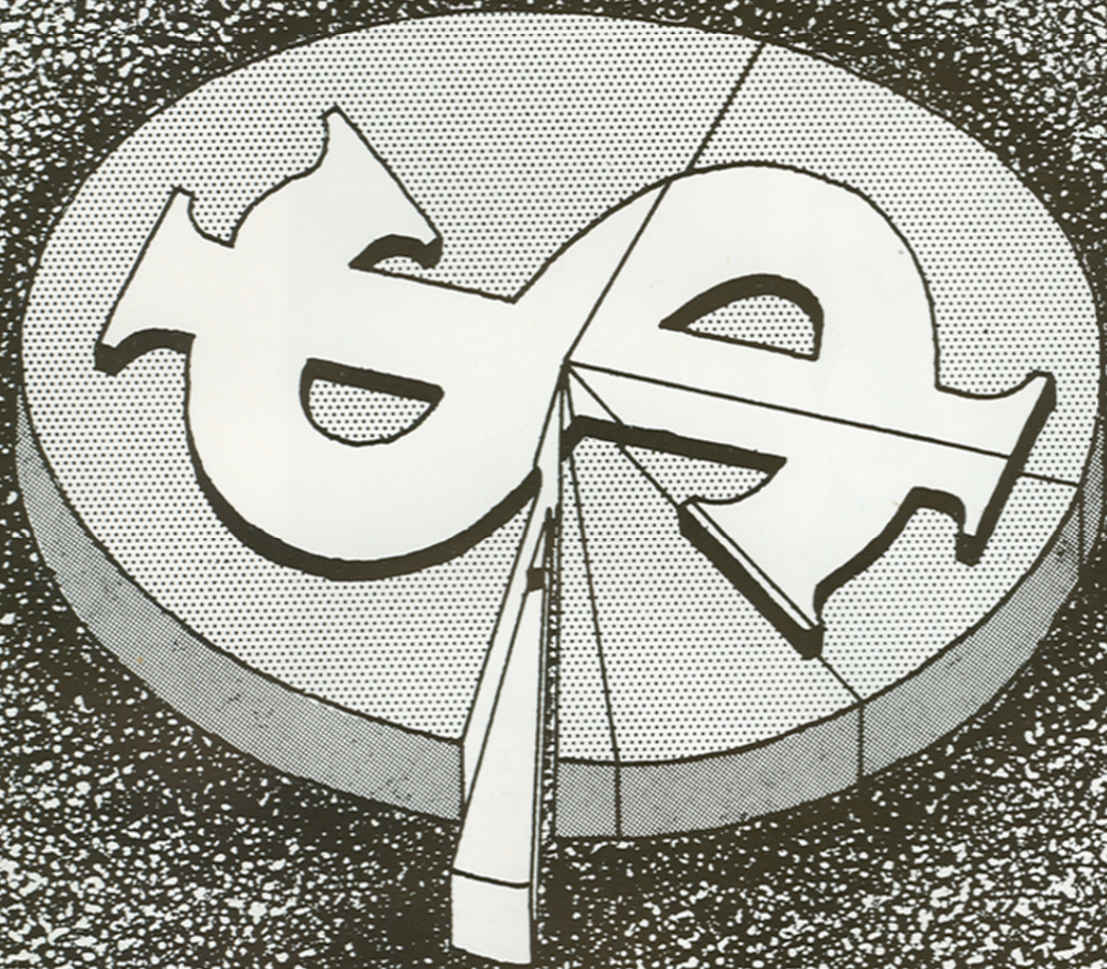

He enrolled at The Stout Institute in the fall of 1947 intending to follow in his father's footsteps by entering the field of education. His father now is Superintendent of Schools at Lake Crystal, Minnesota.

A well-liked fellow, Jack will long be remembered by his classmates and friends as well as by his teachers, who always found him an interesting and cooperative student.

Management

Miss Erdlitz and Mr. Siefert, two of Stout's new faculty, are shown chatting in the Union. Mr. Edwin Siefert succeeds Daniel Green, who retired last year; Miss Irene Erdlitz is the new women's physical education teacher. Other new faculty members are Mr. Robert Blaesing, Mr. Robert Swanson, and Dr. Ralph Iverson.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 1, 1951

To the Class of '51
The Stout Institute

The form of this yearbook is that of a report. In a college such a theme is indeed appropriate, for "reports" have an important place in all educational processes.

Throughout your college career, your progress has been meticulously recorded in a variety of reports. In these years you have created for yourself a record of character, personality, scholastic ability, manual skill, student teaching success, and similar evidences of your attendance here. That report was of your own making; it will never change.

Now your report has already been put to use. Employing officials, seeking persons of desirable character and particular skills, have examined your college record. Thus you have reported to them what they may expect of you in personal characteristics and in technical background.

The college, in turn, should report to the graduates who hold its degrees. It is pleasant to note numerous attainments, both in improvements and additions to our physical plant, as well as progress in our unceasing endeavor to advance the educational functions of the college. And our program for the future has before it a bright outlook.

So, although this is a time of parting, let us not forget the value and pleasure that lie in reports. At the college we shall spare no effort to accomplish tasks worthy of record. From you, our graduates, we hope to hear frequently of your professional achievements and personal happiness. May all these reports be pleasant ones!

Sincerely yours,

Verne C. Fryklund

Employees

A typical scene of a change in shifts at The Stout Institute. The group is shown traveling from the academic area to the industrial area in which the technical industrial buildings are located. During these changes in shift there often is a hurried chat with friends or time out for a cigarette.

The Senior Class started out their most important year by sponsoring the Senior-Freshman picnic at Wakanda Park. Clarence Urankar, Barbara Pech, and Barbara Lovering were in charge of the event. This year at Homecoming time the class decorated the halls with "blue devils" which were hung from the lights, a large banner proclaiming the theme, and streamers around the pillars. A large "blue devil" was also placed in front of the Harvey Memorial. The float which was entered in the Homecoming parade featured a "blue devil" reclining on a lawn chair being served cold drinks while being fanned. Emery Nelson, Wayne Rudesill, and Charles Wise were in charge of the float preparations. Ruth Schrader, one of the Homecoming queen's attendants, and Ruth Voss and Janice Vaughn, in charge of the punch served at the Christmas dance, also contributed to the social events of the year.

Three seniors were elected as SSA officers by the student body: Warren Barberg, president; Jean Archie, secretary; and Donald Braem, treasurer. Fourteen seniors were honored by being chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges. Warren Barberg, Jean Archie, Donald Braem, Will Malone, Torval Hendrickson, Robert Manson, Robert Houghton, Clarence Urankar, Geraldine Raisler, Ann Banker, Russell Pollock, James Gehrke, and Dorothy Amendt were so honored.

Russell Pollock, who played on the varsity for four years, was chosen all-conference guard. Other seniors who have played their last year with Stout include Vaughn Stai and Ed Nylund. The football team is also losing some veterans: Sam Basile, Dale Digerness, Will Malone, Russell Pollock, Vaughn Stai, and Roger Randall all held key positions on the squad.

The cast of the MAP production presented last fall, "Lost Horizon," included two seniors in leading roles, Don Winters and Lee Flanders. In the spring production "The Great Big Doorstep" Don Winters again played one of the leading roles.

Two hundred and eight students—one hundred and forty men and sixty women—will receive their diplomas on June 1. Recalling events that occurred throughout the last four years will keep many reminiscing at the senior picnic and at the senior dance.

The class of 1952 began the year by electing the class officers and the representatives on the student governing board, William Banks and Charles Schiferl.

As was true of the other classes on the campus, the first major activity in which the Junior Class participated was Homecoming. In addition to entering a float in the parade the group assumed the responsibility of decorating the new gymnasium for the dance. To make the gym into a delightful danceland the members of the class decorated the room with blue and white streamers and installed goal posts at both ends of the floor. Later in the year the class added a touch of gaiety to the Christmas dance by contributing several clever posters.

The well-known and very capable printer of the Junior Class, George Stegman, was chosen chairman for the Junior Prom, given May 5. He, assisted by several others, very cleverly decorated the new high school gym in keeping with the prom theme "Dancing in the Dark!" Many dollars worth of black and white crepe paper were used to give a tent-like effect. Garden scenes were placed around the sides of the gym, and the front was decorated with silhouettes. Everyone seemed to have had a very enjoyable time in this dimly lit enchanted gym.

One of the members of the class of 1952, Rose Grzadzielewski, achieved the honor of being chosen as both Homecoming Queen and Rose of Sigma Tau. It was the first time in the history of the school that the same person was selected for both events.

In addition to the contributions which members of this class made to athletic and dramatic events, many also found the time to assume part of the responsibility for the leadership of the many church organizations on the campus. Beverly Brehmer was president of the Congo Club; Jean Van Liew was president, Katherine Ziehm secretary, Gaylord Roe treasurer, and Joanne Buboltz fellowship representative of the Lutheran Students' Association; Eugene Traxler was vice president and Patricia Krause secretary of the Newman Club; and the entire governing board of the Wesley Student Fellowship came from the ranks of the class of 1952: Wayne Coleman, president; George Stegman, vice president; Betty Erickson, secretary-treasurer; and Shirley Doner, State Student Council Member.

SOPHOMORES

President	PAUL RAUTH
Vice President	JOHN CHRISTENSEN
Secretary	CHARMAINE CHOPP
Treasurer	ANN ROSSMILLER

After the summer vacation the class of 1953 again returned to Stout in September. One of the first accomplishments of the new school year was the election of officers including Phyllis Amacher and Fred Hodges as SSA representatives.

The first major activity in which the sophomores participated was Homecoming. The class was in charge of decorations and spent considerable time and effort decorating the town and Nelson Field. Huge "Blue Devils" kept watch over Main Street during the entire festivities, and store windows took on a new appearance. As a result of sophomore enthusiasm a balloon sale was held, and the many colorful balloons were used to celebrate the first Homecoming touchdown. The sophomores also entered a float in the Homecoming parade portraying the theme "Devils Take a Holiday." The class was fortunate to have one of its members, Vilyn Erb, chosen as queen's attendant at the Homecoming activities.

Following a tradition at Stout, the sophomore class was in charge of the decorations for the All School Christmas Dance held December 9. A pleasant atmosphere for dancing was obtained in the new gym by using Christmas trees and greens.

Because so many of the fellows enlisted or were drafted, including the sophomore president, the vice president handled affairs during the second semester. The biggest event of this semester was the all school dance. Although it was held on Friday, April 13, and although the admission was only thirteen cents, everyone present seemed to have more than his share of good luck.

The names of several members of the class of 1953 deserve mention: Fred Hodges, the new drum major who made such a hit with the band and student body; Ann Rossmiller, one of the two students chosen to represent The Stout Institute in a "Workshop Conference" in Chicago; William Kieffer, George Krall, and Herbert Markley, outstanding performers on the football field; and Sumie Doi and Robert Wong, players of principal roles in the MAP production "Lost Horizon."

The SSA campaign and election was well represented by the sophomore class with Charmaine Chopp, Phyllis Amacher, and John Christensen candidates for the office of vice president. John Christensen was the successful candidate.

FRESHMEN

President JACK LUY

Vice President FRED BAHR

Secretary MARIETTA THOMAS

Treasurer JOYCE DeVRIES

In the fall a new group of eager students, the class of 1954, invaded the campus and began making their contribution to the history of The Stout Institute.

At Stout the first week of the fall semester is designated as freshman week, and every one is concerned with making the new freshman students feel at ease and welcome. Parties, picnics, and tours are held by various classes and organizations to introduce the new students to The Stout Institute and to the town of Menomonie.

In September the first step in the organization of this new class was held; this was the election of officers. It was necessary that the class organize early since it is a tradition at Stout that the Freshman Class fulfills its part in the Homecoming activities. The honor awarded to this class was the building of the bonfire at the fair grounds, an outstanding feature of every Homecoming celebration. Every class tries to set a new record height for the bonfire, and the class of 1954 was no exception. For several weeks before the big night the fellows scoured the town for flammable materials. For two nights the boys worked and carefully guarded the project aided by moral support from the girls in the form of sandwiches and hot coffee. The huge success of the bonfire proved the worth of their efforts. In addition to this project the class also entered a float in the Homecoming parade.

When the Christmas Dance rolled around, the Freshman Class again found that a job had been handed to its members; this time they had to provide the entertainment for the dance. Again it was readily agreed that they did very well.

Out of the more than two hundred students who are members of this class it is difficult to mention all who are outstanding. However, several should be singled out for unusual performance during their first year at college: Joseph Stebly, Wayne Weiler, Stephen Hansen, Mark Reimers, and Gerald Krall as members of the football squad; Dwight Chinnock, Henry Lauber, and Mark Reimers as members of the basketball squad; and Maryann Smith as a member of the cast of "Lost Horizon."

Considering the start they have made, this class should be able to make a valuable contribution to the history of Stout.

Union Groups

Pledges from the four fraternities on the campus of The Stout Institute. The black derby and bow tie symbolize the F.O.B.'s, the straw hat and cane the K.F.S.'s, the red fez and sash the Sigmas, and the sword and shield the Sigma Taus. These fellows are relaxing a few minutes from the routine drudgeries of "Pledge Week."

Stout Student Association

President WARREN BARBERG

Vice President DOROTHY KRUSHAS

Treasurer DONALD BRAEM

Secretary JEANNE ARCHIE

The largest and strongest organization on the Stout campus is the Stout Student Association. Composed of over eight hundred members—the entire student body—this organization, through its democratically elected officers, regulates student activities and serves as a bridge between the student and the administration.

The executive board of the SSA regulates student affairs by assigning funds to activities incorporated in the SSA, by maintaining a school calendar, and by serving as the student governing organization. Additional responsibilities of the officers include the arrangement of the details of Homecoming, the scheduling of student assemblies and Sunday afternoon movies, and the sponsorship of the first and second semester student mixers and the Senior Frolic.

The SSA acts as a channel through which student problems and questions may be brought to the college administration. This is accomplished through a student-faculty organization, the Student Governing Board. This board is composed of the SSA officers; elected representatives from the three upper classes; and three faculty members, Deans Antrim and Price and Mr. Arneson. The president and secretary of the SSA and the three faculty members are also members of the Student Affairs Committee. This committee, composed of both students and faculty, reports directly to the administration.

The general harmony which prevails at the meetings of these groups represents very well the democratic spirit at Stout.

During the year a social activities handbook was compiled and distributed to incoming freshman girls. The Phi U's are also sponsors of the movie of the Home Economics division of The Stout Institute which was completed this year. In conjunction with the Epsilon Pi Tau and the Home Economics Club, a guest speaker was presented.

To become a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, one must be a member of the Home Economics Club, a junior or first semester senior, and must have a grade point average of 1.7 or above. President LEE FLANDERS

Vice President RICHARD DUTHLER

Secretary BEVERLY HEDLUND

Treasurer ARMIN GERHARDT

The purposes of the Manual Arts Players Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega Fraternity are to develop a taste and appreciation for the best in dramatic literature, to attain a certain degree of acting and staging ability, to provide fundamental training as a basis for future activity in all phases of amateur dramatics, to provide an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics, and to provide a wider fellowship for those interested in the college theater. To become a member, one must have a grade point average of 1.3 and one hundred activity points earned by working on the stage and by taking part in plays.

Under the direction of Mr. Norman Ziemann this organization takes charge of such technical work as lighting, stage arrangement, and curtains for lyceums, assemblies, and programs in the auditorium. Two plays, "Lost Horizon" and "The Great Big Doorstep," were presented during the year. In January the group went to Minneapolis to see "Oklahoma."

HONORARY

Epsilon Pi Tau

President	WILLIAM MALONE
Vice President	LEWIS MALLOW
Secretary-Treasurer	ROBERT HOUGHTON
Asst. Secretary-Treasurer	CHARLES SCHIFERL

The Theta Chapter of Epsilon Pi Tau is an international honorary professional fraternity for industrial education and industrial vocational education. The chapter is concerned with studies of significant trends in general education and in industrial education. The objectives of the group are to esteem the function of skill in industrial arts and vocational education, to promote social efficiency both in restricted contacts of the individual and with society as a whole, to foster and reward research, and to publish and circulate the results of this scholarly endeavor.

The upperclassmen are prorated as to the number of sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduates who may become eligible for candidacy for membership. The candidates are selected on the basis of character, scholarship, personality, and leadership in the field. This year the organization welcomed forty-nine new members into its ranks.

A guest speaker was also presented in a joint dinner meeting with Phi Upsilon Omicron. Representatives from Stout—Mr. Robert Swanson, Lewis Mal-low, Charles Schiferl, John Brandt, and Garth Wilcox—were sent to the installation of Alpha Omicron Chapter at Wayne University, Detroit, Michigan. At this time the group had an opportunity to talk to many of the leaders in the field of industrial and vocational education. By the annual publication of the newsletter, the organization maintained and developed contacts with members who have graduated and who have entered the teaching profession.

Each year Epsilon Pi Tau awards a scholarship to an outstanding male student of the year. The choice is based on the following criteria: contribution to growth and progress in industrial arts, social intelligence, and scholastic standing.

Among the activities of the year was a Christmas party sponsored by the faculty members. The annual spring picnic, held at Lake Chetek, climaxed another successful year.

HONORARY

Alpha Phi Omega

President JAMES GEHRKE

Vice President GEORGE KINSLER

Secretary JAMES HAAS

Treasurer DONALD STRAW

Students who have had previous experience as Boy Scouts of America and who are interested in continuing the Scout oath and law in a fellowship with others are the members of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity. This group has before them a four-fold service objective: service to the student body and faculty, to the youth and the community, to the fellow members, and to the nation. With this purpose of service to humanity kept in mind, they promoted many activities.

Early in the fall on a brisk autumn evening, as part of the freshman orientation program, they conducted several extensive tours to acquaint the incoming freshmen with Stout and Menomonie. Some of the areas visited included the school infirmary, Nelson Field, and the home management house. This group also contributed the brightly painted yellow cigarette butt containers which have helped to keep our campus clean and attractive.

Alpha Phi Omega

As another contribution to the school, they ushered at the football games. Wearing their APO armbands, the "scouts" stationed themselves at various posts around Nelson Field and directed the many spectators to the seating sections throughout the football season.

In order not to omit one of their purposes the group enjoyed some social activities in addition to having their regular meetings. They had a dinner dance and also sponsored "Spring Fever," a school dance held in the gym which was gaily decorated for spring.

Alpha Phi Omega was founded at Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania, on December 16, 1925 and shortly after became national in scope. Eta Kappa chapter was installed on the campus in the fall of 1948 and became affiliated with the national organization in May 1949.

There are three fundamental requirements for active membership in Alpha Phi Omega. First, the student must have had previous experience in the Boy Scouts of America; second, he must prove an earnest desire to render service to others; and third, he must maintain average standards in his school work.

In addition they had several speakers at their meetings including Dean Frederickson, head of the Inter-Varsity Missions; and Walter Olson. The annual report of the 1951 TOWER finds the F.O.B.'s continuing to believe in the stimulation of cooperation and fellowship in social, intellectual, athletic, and individual events.

As in past years the fraternity continued its tradition of sponsoring "Stunt Night," a cooperative venture with the various organizations on the campus. A spirit of cooperation within this group was also shown by the efficient planning of "Duffy's Tavern," their annual fall dance. At this affair the "Black derby boys" always see to it that a very congenial atmosphere reigns for all those attending. Also of interest to the student body is the annual spring formal and the Dairy Bar. The theme for this event, which is given in the Harvey Memorial, is carried out by serving milk and cookies. Each year, on Awards Day, an award is given to an outstanding underclassman athlete.

The F.O.B.'s, founded in 1927, have the distinction of being the oldest men's organization on the campus.

Kappa Phi Sigma

President DAVID HARTZELL
 Secretary EDMUND PAUL
 Treasurer ROBERT DEAN FREY

Kappa Phi Sigma, founded on this campus in 1935, is entered into the ledgers of this year's annual report under its more familiar name of K.F.S. These Greek letters symbolize that the group is ever striving for knowledge, friendship, and society so as to be ever awake to current problems, to create and maintain among the members a feeling of sincere brotherhood, and to devote their unified efforts along such channels as involve all school problems and interests.

It is very apparent that they have lived up to these standards during the past year, for they have staged many successful and well-planned events. They started out the year with an alumni Homecoming breakfast. Other successful events included the annual "Orchids for M'Lady" dance and the spring and fall dinner dances. Rounding out the calendar of events was the traditional Grudge Game between the K.F.S.'s and the F.O.B.'s. Again, as in past years, the fraternity continued its contribution to campus life—the staging of skits in the Union during "Pledge Week."

Sigma Fraternity

President	GEORGE KINSLER
Vice President	ROGER RANDALL
Secretary	JAMES GEHRKE
Treasurer	ROBERT BRAUN

This annual report discloses that the objective of the Sigma Fraternity is to contribute as much as possible to the welfare of the college by providing experiences, both academic and social, which are essential parts of the educational process.

Carrying out their social activities, the Sigmas sponsor annually the "Tacky Drag," held in the fall of the year. This function departs from the conventional dance in that the student body dresses in "hard time" costumes. Three prizes are given to the man, woman, and couple whose costumes are most in keeping with the theme.

Symbolic of the name Sigma is the letter "S" which stands for social activities, service, and school.

As a reward for outstanding service the fraternity annually awards to a deserving senior a five year subscription to Industrial Arts and Vocational Education.

Sigma Tau Gamma

President JOHN POELLINGER

Vice President RUSSELL LARSON

Secretary BOHUMIL HOLUB

Treasurer ARMIN GERHARDT

"Cooperation, Consideration, and Character" are three words which symbolize the objectives—scholarship, leadership, and citizenship—of the Alpha Kappa Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma, one of the few national organizations on the campus.

Members are chosen from men students who are well-rounded in their interests, activities, and personalities, and who are seriously determined to make the most of their chosen profession.

During the past year the organization sponsored many activities. The all-school informal dance, "School Daze," was held, followed by one of the year's biggest events, an all-school formal, "The Rose of Sigma Tau," over which reigned Rose Grzadzielewski, the chosen Rose of Sigma Tau. In January the annual Sigma Tau Smoker for all men was held. In addition to these all-school activities, two initiation banquets, a toboggan party, an annual Christmas party, and the annual pre-prom dinner in May were held for the members.

Intersociety Council

President CAROL HANSEN

Secretary-Treasurer MARY JEAN SWANSON

The Intersociety Council is the governing body of the four women's societies on the campus. It is composed of the president and secretary of each society, the dean of women, and the advisers of each society.

The purposes of the Intersociety Council are to unite the four societies, to promote good relationships, and to sponsor joint activities. This organization meets whenever the need arises to discuss relevant social rules and the activities which it sponsors. The importance of such an organization is shown by the friendly spirit maintained by each of the four societies toward each other.

Each fall and spring, joint rushing parties are held to acquaint eligible sophomore and transfer women with the aims and activities of each of the societies. Each year the Intersociety Christmas Ball is sponsored by the Intersociety Council for the members of the societies and their escorts. The theme this year was "Pointsetta Promenade." An unusual dance that is an annual affair sponsored by the Council is the "Sock Dance," an all-school event.

S.M.A. Society

President RUTH SCHRADER

Vice President JEAN CARSWELL

Secretary MARY JEAN SWANSON

Treasurer CONNIE ANDERSON

The S.M.A. Society, a Stout organization since 1923, strives to establish closer friendship among its members and to encourage standards of scholarship. A rushing party combined with a fall style revue was held in October. Seven new members were accepted into the S.M.A. Society at a formal initiation.

Dorothy Krushas, one of the Homecoming queen attendants, represented the S.M.A.'s. This group also entered a float in the Homecoming parade. On October 28, 1950 the S.M.A.'s sponsored the Dads' Day Dance. Decorations for the dance consisted of large cartoons depicting dad in various humorous stages of life. The skit presented on Stunt Night, the German version of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," came through with third place.

The S.M.A.'s were particularly busy during Sadie Hawkins' Week sponsoring a Valentine Candy Sale, a Valentine Tea, and the big Sadie Hawkins' Dance on Saturday night.

Hyperians

President	BARBARA JOHNSON
Vice President	ALICE BILLIET
Secretary	DOROTHY KNUTSON
Treasurer	BETTE SEVERSON

The Eta Omega Society, known on the campus as the "Hyperians," was founded at The Stout Institute on March 19, 1923. The aims of this organization are to encourage high scholarship, to further social life among the members, and to carry on social service in the community. Prospective members must be of sophomore standing, must have at least average grades in all college courses, and must show a desire to participate in the activities of the organization.

Social meetings were held rather frequently throughout the year to discuss the many activities. Last fall a "round-up reading party" was held. At Homecoming, as usual, the group entered a float in the parade. The dance "June in January" was sponsored by this group as well as the popular "Old Heidelberg Tea." Other accomplishments included assisting with entertaining the Mothers for Dad's Day, and making and distributing stuffed toys to children at the orphanage for Christmas.

Pallas Athene

President	ROSE GRZADZIELEWSKI
Vice President	NOREEN COOK
Secretary	ROBERTA HUTCHINSON
Treasurer	ARDIS OLSON

The activities of the Pallas Athene Society during 1950 started out with the pledging of ten new members. Traditional social activities were the Snow Brawl Dance, serenades at the men's and women's dormitories, an Easter Sale, and a May Day Tea. During the last month of school, the Pallas Athene Dinner Dance and the Senior Dinner for the graduating sisters were held.

Pallas Athene members gained numerous distinctions on the campus during the 1950-51 school year. Three members were on the Homecoming Court—Rose Grzadziewski as the queen, and Rowena Christen and Vilyn Erb as attendants. Dorothy Amendt, Ann Banker, and Jean Archie were chosen for Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges. Rowena Christen won the SSA election for secretary, taking the position Jean Archie had held. Dorothy Amendt was President of the Home Economics Club. Ann Rossmiller and Charmaine Chopp served as officers of the Sophomore class.

Membership is open to Stout faculty and students who are radio amateurs or prospective radio amateurs, and to anyone else interested in radio communication. The club members have access to a modern and well-equipped school radio shop with a complete and powerful amateur station, W9CPB, which is in operation in the Trades Building. Bow Hunters' Club

President ALBERT SPANHEIMER

Secretary-Treasurer WILLIAM JOKKEL

The Stout Bow Hunters' Club, the newest organization on the campus, was organized in April 1950. The purposes of this club are to foster bow hunting, to conserve wild life, and to promote good fellowship.

Membership in the club is open to anyone interested in bow hunting. For those who have had no experience in bow hunting, lessons are given in the Stout gym. Included in the club's training program is the construction of bows, arrows, and backstops.

Among its varied activities are hunting trips, camping, and field matches. The big event of the year, which is the proving ground for the previous practice meets, is deer season. This year the members hunted and camped for a few days in Southern Wisconsin. As yet the field matches are limited to club members, but plans are being made for next year's intercollegiate meets. A diamond, mounted on a gold key, represents one deer bagged and is awarded to a deserving member. One of the members, Marvin Krueger, wears two diamonds on his key.

Treasurer ARDIS MANDERSCHIED

The purpose of the club, which was organized in October 1927, is to promote a program of activities that reaches all women students and results in enjoyment, development of good health, physical efficiency, leadership, good sportsmanship, and cooperation with campus organizations.

This year the W.A.A. had the honor of having one of its members, Rose Grzadzielewski, chosen as the Homecoming queen. Ann Rossmiller, with the help of her committee, made "Roses for Rosie," put attractive posters in the Home Economics building, and constructed a rose bush in front of the gym, all of which helped to create a real Homecoming atmosphere. Carolyn Schauf was in charge of the float for the Homecoming parade which featured girls doing stunts on a bed of autumn leaves. Bubble gum, address books, and balloons were sold by the W.A.A. at the "S" Club carnival. Ardis Manderscheid was chairman of this activity. On April 5, the Harvey Memorial was decorated with all types of sports equipment for the all-school tea sponsored by the W.A.A. Orangeade, large assorted cookies, and gum drops were served. Catherine Magee and Joan Blair were co-chairmen of the tea. Ten of the members attended a Play Day at La Crosse State Teachers College. This is an annual spring event to which W.A.A. clubs from colleges in this area are invited. During orientation week the club co-sponsored the freshman sports spree. Later a scavenger hunt was held for the girls with initiation of new members. One of the major activities of the year was the selling of hot dogs and pop at the football games. The club also sponsored an intramural basketball tournament with the W.A.A. winning first place and the Pallas Athenes second. Each sorority participating received a measuring cup containing pennies.

The club sponsors sports activities every Monday and Tuesday evening with occasional hikes and parties. Each member participates in the various sports to earn points toward an emblem, a letter, and finally a pin. Meetings are held the first Monday of every month. Membership is voluntary.

Stout Symphonic Singers

The objectives of this organization, a seventy voice a cappella choir, are to promote interest in and appreciation of music, to offer pleasure to students who enjoy singing, to promote publicity for Stout through the annual spring tour, and to provide entertainment for the school and the city. The criterion for candidate selection is based on vocal quality and good tone production as well as on the ability to sight read music.

Each year is climaxed by a spring tour; some of the tours in the past have been national in scope. This year the organization traveled through Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin and performed in Duluth, Rice Lake, Spooner, and Virginia. Through these tours the Stout Symphonic Singers are gaining national recognition. A good share of the cost of this annual trip is obtained from the sale of tickets for the programs and also from candy and bake sales conducted by the members of the organization.

This year, in addition to their annual Christmas concert, the SSS also presented a program for the state Rotarian convention held in Eau Claire.

This year the SSS was again under the direction of Mr. Charles Frailey. Assisting Mr. Frailey in the management of the organization were the following officers: James Gehrke, president; Noreen Cook, vice president; Charmaine Chopp, secretary; and Joan Brack, treasurer.

The Stout Band

The main purposes of the Stout Band are to perform at football and basketball games, to present formal concerts, to develop playing ability of all members, and to afford pleasure to those who enjoy music. Membership in the college band is open to all students who have had training and experience in the playing of a band instrument.

The sixty-piece band made several marching appearances during the fall. Between halves of the football games the band displayed intricate maneuvers, the most unusual being presented at the Homecoming game. This was entitled "Women's Style Changes." The highlight of the football season came with the band trips to La Crosse and Superior. The band also made appearances at Dairy Day and other city functions. After the close of the football season the band concentrated on basketball games. A pep band was present at each home contest. The annual spring Pop Concert was presented to the student body at assembly on March 21.

Vice President Don Plale took over the duties of President R. David Johnson when the latter was called into the service. Betty Johansen served the group as secretary-treasurer during the year. Adviser and director of music for the group is Mr. Charles Frailey.

Tower Editorial Staff

Editor-in-chief	TORVAL HENDRICKSON
Business Manager	EDWARD McMAHON
Production Manager	WILLIAM KOCAJ
Literary Editor	LEWIS MALLOW
Chief Photographer	WARREN BARBERG

As you probably know by now, this year's Tower is intended to be an annual report to the stockholders of The Stout Institute whether students, faculty, administration, alumni, or friends. It is always a problem to find a theme for the annual. However, while returning from Minneapolis about a year ago, after checking the copy for the 1950 Tower, someone came up with the idea of making the 1951 Tower an annual report. The idea caught on and the dummy was drawn up accordingly.

According to Security and Exchange Commission regulations every company that is listed on the major stock exchanges must submit an annual report to its stockholders. In order to find out exactly what went into such a report, your staff sent for and studied over two hundred reports. From many of them came ideas incorporated in this year's Tower. For example, the map on the end sheets was suggested by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the faculty page layout by the General Foods Company, the stories on the deans by the Nash-Kelvinator Company, the tributes to those who died last year by Swift and Company, and the division pages by several companies.

An outgrowth of the examination of the reports was the decision to streamline the organization of the staff. Instead of the usual fifteen to twenty title holders, an executive board composed of the editor-in-chief, the business manager, the literary editor, and the production editor was set up. Later the photography editor was included. This board, which reported directly to the faculty advisers, argued out within itself all matters of policy. Each individual member then assumed the responsibility for carrying out his individual obligations.

Raising the money to cover the cost of the Tower has been a difficult problem during the postwar years. One of the first decisions made by your executive committee was to put the Tower on a solvent basis. Costs of engraving and printing, however, have risen a great deal during the last few years; in addition the drop off in enrollment intensified the problem. An engraving costs the same whether fifteen copies are made from it or whether fifteen hundred are. Your board attempted to solve the problem in part by selling advertisements in the student directory and by arranging to use the cover dies and the faculty cuts for several years in addition to the present.

On these two pages are the pictures of those students who are responsible for your 1951 Tower. Each has contributed his time and effort to your book. Some were forced to drop other extra-curricular activities in order to help get out the annual. In addition to those pictured your staff would like to express its appreciation to a group of very hard-working girls who took over the difficult and boring job of typing copy: Louise Wenger, Donna Krisik, Joan Fairweather, Janice Herzog, Jeanne Brickson, Iris Ruf, Phyllis Scholtfelt, and Valeria Bloom.

The Stoutonia

Editor	DENNIS FOLTMAN
News Editor	GLEN SOMMERS
Business Manager	DON WINTERS
Production Manager	WILLIAM KOCAJ

Thirty-six years ago, on March 17, 1915, the first issue of The Stoutonia, four pages in length, was published. Since then it has come to be an eight page weekly published every Friday during the school year.

The purpose of The Stoutonia is listed in the masthead of every issue for all to see. It reads: "The Stoutonia is a little more than just a newspaper—it is an educational experiment. It is written to inform, enlighten, and to give its staff members experience that conforms to good journalistic principles and practice."

The staff is made up entirely of students and every step of production—writing, editing, and printing—is their work. The prime membership requirements are interest and sincerity.

Over the years the alumni section has been expanded and now covers from one to two pages in each issue. Items of interest from alumni all over the world, news of alumni chapters, letters from graduates, and addresses of alumni members are included.

The staff meets every Tuesday for its business meeting and "newscast." At the "newscast" class and campus events are discussed for use in the coming issues, and after the meeting assignment slips with a deadline date are made and given to the student reporters.

Geraldine Erickson, who served as the very capable editor of the alumni section the past year, has been named chief editor of The Stoutonia for the coming school year.

Employee Activities

"Are you ready? U-rah-rah, Bluedevils," yelled as only Al Hodges can, will long be remembered by Stout fans. Cheerleading is an important addition to the atmosphere of our Bluedevil games. Al was ably assisted in arousing school spirit by Rita Hack, Roberta Harris, Pat Muldowney, and Helen Hooyman.

Employee Activities

Stout Bluedevil Football Team

This year proved to be very interesting, colorful, and successful for the Bluedevil football team and their coach, Anthony Storti. Always alert and ever ready for action, the squad practiced many long hours to produce team-play of which we can be very proud. Under Coach Storti's keen and able supervision, the handling of the individual assignments was carried out with smooth coordination.

Probably one of the greatest highlights of the season was the spectacular passing record compiled by quarterback Gale Woelffer, with Vaughn Stai and Russell Pollock on the receiving end.

This season's leading scorers were Vern Christensen, who made six touchdowns in addition to twenty extra points for a total of fifty-six points, and Harter Peterson, who crossed the goal line for a total of thirty-six points.

Again the Bluedevils had the honor of being represented on the all-conference teams. Vaughn Stai, a veteran of four years at end, and Gale Woelffer, completing his second year at quarterback, were chosen to the first team. Included on the all-conference second team were center Dale Digerness, fullback Harter Peterson, and end Russell Pollock.

Seniors who have played their last year with the Bluedevils include Sam Basile, Dale Digerness, Will Malone, Russell Pollock, Vaughn Stai, and Roger Randall.

Assigned to the job of taping ankles and wrists, removing bumps and bruises, and checking and repairing equipment were Wally Christensen, Manager; August Schulz, Assistant Manager; Roman Weinzierl, Trainer; and Bob Shatusky, Assistant Trainer. All publicity was handled by Eugene Weigel.

Stout over Eau Claire

Stout's first conference game was a complete victory in the air, on the ground, and on defense. Since the two platoon system was used, approximately 24 "regulars" were on the squad. Four sophomores, Verne Christensen, George Krall, Bill Kieffer, and Dom Cataldi, stood out in the scoring department. Stout had the record of gaining 13 first downs to Eau Claire's four, and winning the game 21 to 0.

Stout over Mankato

The first home game of the season was high lighted by a 90-yard drive and two passes, 27 and 32 yards each. George Krall was the leading ground gainer for the Bluedevils, getting credit for picking up 69 yards. Mankato scored their only touchdown in the final five seconds of the game.

Stout ties Milwaukee

Stout's defensive play produced a 6-6 tie with Milwaukee State at their first meeting on the gridiron. The Bluedevils' only touchdown was made near the end of the first quarter. Milwaukee scored in the second quarter, but their try for the extra point was blocked by Bill Kieffer, halfback.

Stout over Platteville

Homecoming proved successful when the team downed Platteville 27 to 6. Both the linemen and the backfield must be given credit for Stout's 167 yards gained by rushing. The Bluedevils took to the air for 33 passes, almost all of which were thrown by Gale Woelffer. Stout's defensive line was a standout throughout the game, holding Platteville to 60 yards on rushing.

La Crosse over Stout

The Bluedevils' first loss came during the fifth game of the season. There was no doubt that La Crosse had a powerful ground-gaining team that made no mistakes, took advantage of every opportunity, and played its best ball of the year. Stout didn't give up, however; they gained 189 yards on passes and 81 on the ground. Fourteen out of 19 passes were completed with only two intercepted by La Crosse.

Brace yourself, Christy!

Watch it, Gale . . . You're in trouble!

Look 'em over, gang; they're a bunch of proud "Dads."

Stout over River Falls

Dads' Day was a complete success with a victory of 44 to 13. The game started off with a bang when Bill Kieffer raced eighty yards for a touchdown on the second play. Within one minute and nine seconds, the score was 7 to 0. Stout's team displayed sharp passing, hard running, and jolting line play in this game.

Superior over Stout

The hard hitting Superior team edged Stout out of victory, 33 to 28. Our first score was the result of the combined efforts of Harter Peterson and George Krall. Krall drove 37 yards; then Peterson took over for the last 25 yards. This was a close game as shown by the half-time score in which Stout led 21 to 20.

Stout over Upper Iowa

In the last game of the football season Stout smothered Upper Iowa with a tremendous 54-7 score. Everyone was in on the eight touchdown scoring act with Dom Cataldi and Vaughn Stai each scoring twice, and each of the following scoring once: Red Walker, Verne Christensen, Herb Markley, and Bob Nessler.

Ouch! I didn't think you cared.

"Stand for our team" . . . "and while's we're fighting, we're cheering."

Off to Superior.

Now we know where you spend your spare time, Mr. Frailey.

Stout Bluedevil Basketball Team

Fans of the 1950-51 basketball squad saw one of the smallest teams—not only in terms of height but also in terms of members—that Stout has ever put on the floor. After the first two conference games, the squad consisted of only nine men, six of whom were returning lettermen. With these six lettermen Coach Johnson made up the nucleus of the team. It included Russell Pollock, guard; Hilary Janikowski, guard; Robert Erickson, center; Robert Brimer, forward; John Debrauske, forward; and Bill Kieffer, forward.

Although the Bluedevils won only one of the eleven conference games, they compiled an average of 73.3 points per game for a total of 807 points in conference play placing third in the scoring column. High scorers for the season's play were Russell Pollock, who was chosen all conference guard, with 250 points, and Robert Erickson with 228 points. Another high scoring man was Hilary Janikowski, who was voted the most valuable player by his teammates. Russell Pollock, who has played his last year with the Bluedevils, was chosen team captain.

Assisting Coach Johnson this year was Vaughn Stai, a veteran of four years with the Bluedevils. Last year Vaughn was chosen the most valuable player and team captain by his team mates. His eligibility kept him out of conference play this year. The job of taping, conditioning stiff joints, and checking equipment was handled by Manager Al Brown—his third year at the job.

Considering the handicap of a small team and the total number of points compiled, the Bluedevils had a very successful year.

Basketball

The Stout Institute's Bluedevils traveled out of state to play their first game of the 1950-51 schedule. They lost this opening game against St. Mary's of Winona, Minnesota.

The following three games were played at home. The first of this series was against St. John's University of Minnesota. This game, lost to a strong opponent, was the first to be played on the floor of the spacious new gym. In the third consecutive game against a Minnesota team, our fighting Bluedevils defeated St. Olaf's College of Northfield with a field goal by Russ Pollock with 13 seconds remaining.

The Bluedevil squad traveled to Michigan where they made a 1-1 record by defeating Michigan College of Education and losing to Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

The second home victory of the 1950-51 season occurred when Bill Kieffer scored a free throw with 10 seconds remaining, after the score had been tied up by St. Cloud with only 47 seconds left.

The Stout squad opened the conference season by playing the Yellowjackets of Superior State Teachers College, and were defeated in this first home game of the conference series.

The next four conference games were played on the road. In the first game the Bluedevils were defeated by their neighboring rivals, the Eau Claire Blue Golds. When the Stout squad traveled to Stevens Point for their next game, they were handed a defeat by the Pointers. Even traveling to the southern part of the state didn't change the luck of the fighting Stout squad, for they were defeated by a strong Whitewater team which led during the entire game.

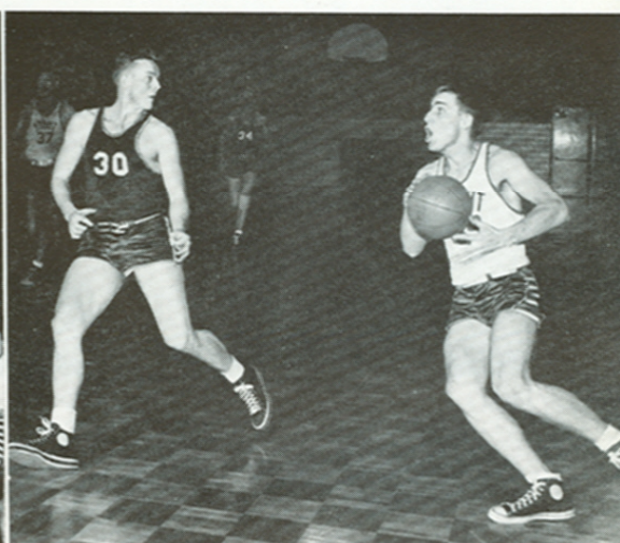

When Stout played La Crosse there, they were defeated by the strongest team of the conference. It was in this game that Henry Lauber, freshman forward, who previously had spent most of his time warming the bench, came into his own and ended up being high scorer for the Bluedevils that night.

When Stout played host to River Falls, they took their first conference victory over the Falcons in one of the best performances of the year. The hard driving Bluedevils secured the lead after the half, and refused to relinquish it for the rest of the evening. Russ Pollock, Bob Brimer, and Hilary Janikowski were the driving force of this game. The Stout team was defeated in their second game against the Eau Claire Blue Golds on the home floor.

Bob Erickson played one of his best games of the season in the game played here against Platteville. The Bluedevils trailed during most of the game, but in the last 10 seconds Bob Erickson dropped in the tying bucket to send the game into an overtime. The good team work of the Stout squad was to no avail, as the Pioneers outscored the Bluedevils to become the victors. The next evening the Bluedevils were defeated in a postponed game against the Oshkosh Titans here.

Two freshmen, Mark Reimers and Henry Lauber, played a topnotch game against Superior there, but the Superior cagers overran the Stout quintet. In a hard fought game here, the Bemidji Beavers defeated the Stout cagers. When the Bluedevils traveled to River Falls, they received the same treatment there after participating in one of the most heated battles of the year.

In the final game of the season, which had the most personal fouls called this year, the Bluedevils received their second defeat at the hands of the La Crosse Indians. Russ Pollock, who as a senior played his last game for Stout, was highest scorer of both teams for the night.

Intramural Activities

Intramural activities play a very important part in the lives of many students. The freshman boys start out with a course in orientation which gives them an introduction to the various sports offered in physical education and in the intramural program. At the beginning of the school year boys can participate in volleyball, golf, tennis, archery, and bowling.

The winter intramural program continues the well-rounded schedule by emphasizing swimming and basketball. Volleyball and archery are also carried over from the fall program.

The Rifle Club and the Ski Club are among the promoters of winter intramural sports.

In the spring many of the games are played out of doors. When the playground dries out enough to mark the bases, the boys start playing softball. About the same time as the playground dries out, Lake Menomin melts; therefore the boys get in shape for fishing by practicing fly casting. The Menomonie Country Club is also a popular place during the spring. Tennis, badminton, archery, and free throwing are popular activities during this season.

The department of physical education and athletics, through the sponsorship of the S Club, awards medals to individual and team winners who participate in the diversified, intramural sports program.

The intramural program at The Stout Institute provides the following opportunities for the male students: the development of coordination, organic strength, and endurance; the relief of tension through participation in wholesome activities which are enjoyable and revitalizing; and the opportunity to gain a knowledge of the rules and techniques of play in a wide variety of activities which in many instances help the individual to build a wholesome recreational program throughout life.

In addition to the development of the physical self the program also provides opportunities for the development of widespread acquaintanceships which often become a source of pleasure and satisfaction during college and later life. In the heat of friendly competition the participants learn that while it is wise to strive earnestly and vigorously to win, it is also wise to observe all the rules of decency, fair play, and sportsmanship—rules which are not only closely associated with athletics but which are also integral components of the American way of life.

A week's effort goes up in smoke in a few minutes . . . But oh, the fun the frosh did have.

Come on, boys—let her play her trombone and you keep in step.

The Arnesons seem to be enjoying the Homecoming activities.

Will you ever run out of words, Charlie? Hey, Jim, your pancakes are getting cold. You PA's must have serious business on the agenda.

The theme of the 1950 Homecoming, "The Devils Take a Holiday," was submitted by Don Braem. Later Rose Grzadzilewski was chosen to reign as queen by popular vote at a student assembly. Ruth Schraeder, Rowena Christen, Vilyn Erb, and Dorothy Krushas were attendants.

The big weekend began Friday, October 13, with alumni registration. That evening Queen Rose was crowned by Ruth Ann Christensen, last year's queen. A torchlight parade, led by the band, guided students and alumni to the Fairgrounds for the bonfire.

Saturday morning the various alumni breakfasts were held. At two o'clock the parade, hailed as "the best ever," was held. The float winners were the FOB for the most humorous, PA's for the most beautiful, and the "S" club for the most in keeping with the theme. There were thirty-three entries in the parade. Of these, six were bands.

The weekend came to a climax when the Stout team, using a variety of running, passing, and lateral plays, defeated Platteville 27 to 6. After the game the traditional dance was held in the new high school gym.

Sunday closed the weekend with a few breakfasts and then open house at the girls' dorms.

After careful judging, the "S" Club float was chosen as the one most in keeping with the theme and the PA's as the most beautiful.

The FOB's took first place in the Homecoming parade with the most humorous float. To think such a little skunk could cause such a sensation.

BARB . . .

Aren't you glad you don't have all eight o'clocks, Barb?

It's Monday morning again and another school day! After a fun-packed weekend, it seems a bit harder to get up but with the ringing of the trustful alarm clock, and as you lazily get out of bed, the day begins.

For a Stout co-ed, her school day is an interesting one, although she has the same schedule for a semester. It is filled with classes, studies, fun, and fellowship.

In class Barb finds that her professors' lectures are interesting and listens intently in order that she herself may become a good teacher some day. Besides the classrooms, Barb also studies in the library, putting her free periods to good use before going on to her next practice teaching class.

However, during the day she also finds time to have fun with her friends as she joins them in a cup of coffee at the Union. Also during the lunch hour, she chats with them before going to her afternoon classes. Then when her last class is over, she leaves school tired but happy!

After careful measuring and mixing, in goes the cake. Will it come out a flop?

The schedule includes shop courses in electricity, woodwork, drafting, metals, graphic arts, auto mechanics, machine shop, and radio. The academic curriculum includes courses in education, science, social science, and English. All fellows are required to take two years of physical education. A variety of sports are offered such as track, basketball, swimming, and baseball.

Between classes there is a dash up to the Union where rivals fight it out in pool and ping pong. For the less active there is always someone willing to play a game of cards. The new television set is quite an attraction, too.

After a hard day at school, there are a few hours of homework and relaxing at the dorm and then lights out because tomorrow comes all too soon.

What form, Jack!

How's the hamburger?

I can't draw either!

SADIE HAWKINS

The week of February 11-17 was proclaimed Sadie Hawkins' Week by the SMA's and the warning, "Skeet for the Hills," was issued to all unmarried men. To help the girls keep the men happy, the SMA's sponsored a candy sale and an all-school tea because, as the old saying goes, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." Any girl who didn't court at least one fellow during the week was considered to be "vilatin' all the laws of Stout's Dogpatch Chapter, and considered one big mezzuble skonk."

Among the official Sadie Hawkins' Week rules were the following: All gals should go courtin' and if a guy is ketched he's gotta cooperate; the gals have gotta go after the guys, but the males have to fetch the gals

The all-school dance of Saturday night was the climax of the week's activities. Everyone was dressed in true Dogpatch style and danced and jigged in an atmosphere that seemed to have come straight out of Dogpatch Land.

Prizes of Kickapoo Joy Juice were given to the best-dressed boy, Lorton Layman, and to the best-dressed girl, 'Liz McJilton, alias Daisy Mae.

Research

Stout offers a graduate program under the directorship of Ray Wigen. Candidates for the master of science degree pursue advanced studies in the fields of industrial arts and home economics. Whether writing a thesis or writing an investigation, the graduate students find that many research procedures are involved, and they acquire further skills in professional techniques.

Capital Improvements

The 1950-1951 school year marked many noted changes in Stout's building program.

Outstanding among them has been the campus project. By closing and removing the streets, the long desired campus has been finally completed, adding much color to Stout.

Also prominent has been the remodeled clothing laboratory, which with its latest equipment is the pride of the home economics department. Compact sewing cabinets and the adjustable cutting table are the attractions here.

Further changes include the art room which has been beautifully repainted and remodeled for its art students. The halls of the home economics building have been repainted. The student Union has also been modernized, and with additional equipment it has become a more popular gathering place for all.

Plans for the future include many more similar improvements.

The beginning of the long awaited campus.

A return to mother earth.

No more dashing between speeding cars!
